Department of History

Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Ethics and History

Introduction – The role of ethics in teaching history comprises of examining the ways that ethical or moral values have changed over the course of human development. For example, ways of evaluating and critically understanding the nature of slavery in the ancient world has changed substantially and this is reflected in our teaching perspective.

Gender Equality /Sensitization and History

Introduction – Teaching history without the gender perspective is akin to putting forth a half-baked idea. Thus, teaching gender-conscious history entails taking into account the binary and the difference in experiences that exist between the different gender. This may give rise to not one history but several and we try to teach keeping these perspectives in mind as humans cannot be considered as neuter individuals.

Department of English

(Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum)

Professional Ethics

Professional ethics are principles that govern the behaviour of a person or group in a business environment. Like values, professional ethics provide rules on how a person should act towards other people and institutions in such an environment.

In Poe's detective short story, Dupin is able to retrieve the letter but retains the state secrecy. Similarly, in Tintin in Tibet, as a journalist and detective he searches for Chang but preserves the secrecy of Tibetan monastery and the Yeti

Name of the chapter	Writer	Sem	CC/GE
'The Purloined Letter'	Edgar Allan Poe,	3	5
Tintin in Tibet	Herge	3	6

Gender Equality /sensitization

It is necessary to initiate students into gender equality and also familiarize them into the history of women's movement in India.

The representation of the marginalized protagonist in "Draupadi" is as one who can resist through her use of body and challenge the socio-political objectification of her body.

In Amar Jiban the perspective of a 19th century woman writer towards woman's rights and equality not only makes it a significant text in gender equality but also in Indian woman's movement

Name of the chapter	Writer	Sem	CC/GE
'Draupadi	Mahasweta Devi	5	11
Amar Jiban	Rassundari Devi	5	11

Human Values

Literature is a repository of human values and what an individual ought to do. In Frankenstein the idealisation of human values like love, goodness are continuously juxtaposed with human flaws. In Tintin in Tibet the idea of fraternity and friendship becomes cross-cultural and also inter-species.

Name of the chapter	Writer	Sem	CC/GE
Tintin in Tibet	Herge	3	6
Frankenstein	Mary Shelley	4	9

Environment and Sustainability

Introduction – Sustainable development aims at promoting the kind of development that minimizes environmental problems and meets the needs of the present generation without compromising the ability of the future generation to meet their own needs.

The Old Man and the Sea presents the parable of man's unconquerable spirit and also the world of nature and wild life. Similarly, in Tintin in Tibet the concern is with the Himalayan terrain, its flora and fauna

Name of the chapter	Writer	Sem	CC/GE
The Old Man and the Sea	Ernest Hemingway	3	5
